Parks, Recreation, & Forestry Department COVID-19 Update

All Parks, Trails and Play Structures are Closed

In an effort to stem the spread of COVID-19 City Manager Gregory Rose has ordered that all University City Parks be closed, along with all trails, play structures and sport courts (basketball, tennis, etc.) until the Emergency Declaration is lifted.

Mulch Delivery Services

Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic and the availability of staff to perform essential services, the City will be suspending any new requests for mulch delivery services until further notice.

Public Works Department COVID-19 Update

Spring Curbside Bulk Item Collection

This program has been postponed until further notice.

Yard Waste Program

Yard waste collection has changed to a call-in service. No stickers are required. Please call (314) 505-8560 for yard waste service by the end of the business day prior to your regular collection day to schedule a collection.

The Spring Electronics Recycling Event has been canceled. Please save your electronics to be recycled at the anticipated Fall Electronics Recycling event.

Recycling

It is critical for the health and safety of the recycling sorters to keep contamination out. No medical or cleaning waste, i.e. wipes, gloves, masks, paper towels, medical needles are NOT allowed.

Only recycle clean and dry:

- paper and cardboard
- cartons
- plastic, glass, and metal household containers

RECYCLING IS WORKING!

Like our other essential public services, St. Louis recycling businesses continue to provide jobs while getting our recycled materials to manufacturers who want them.

University City Public Library COVID-19 Update

Because of the Covid-19 pandemic, University City Public Library is closed to the public until further notice. Library leaders are keeping an eye on how things are developing locally and nationally, and future decisions about reopening will be announced when it is deemed safe by local authorities and the CDC. Library items do not need to be turned in until the building reopens; they will not go late or lost during this closure.

In the meantime, UCPL is still offering up plenty of resources through its website, www.ucitylibrary.org. Check out the new "Enjoy the Library From Home" tab, which features links to electronic books, audiobooks, movies, music, and magazines, as well as links to the help pages for those various resources. Also, make sure you follow UCPL on Facebook, Twitter, and YouTube, for videos featuring your favorite librarians discussing books, reading stories, and more. Links to all of the Library's social media are available on the home page of the UCPL website.

Need help navigating these resources? UCPL librarians are still available to help out by phone at 314-827-5669 between 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Monday through Friday, and via email at reference@ucitylibrary.org.

Municipal Court COVID-19 Update

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the University City Municipal Division dockets have been postponed. Notice of new court dates will be mailed to the address on file with the court. The Court office is closed to the public. Updates can be checked on Municourt.net. For further information, please visit the Municipal Court page.

The Municipal Court/Violations Bureau are only accepting payments online, by mail or drop box which is located at 975 Pennsylvania Ave (Heman Park Community Center). Please put your payment along with a copy of your citation or paper work inside an envelope (not Provided). Please address the envelope with your current address if you would like to receive a receipt.
